ESTABLISHMENT OF RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

Information on the Subject by Postoffice Inspector Flint—What Should be Done.

Postoffice Inspector M. H. Flint has compiled the following information for the guidance of those communities that desire to establish rural delivery:
"The question of the establishment of the rural free delivery at any point throughout the Territory of Hawaii will not be considered by the Postoffice Department in Washington unless the following instructions are complied with:

"Prepare a petition addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C., requesting the establishment of the service, have the petition signed by all the proposed patrons of the route and then secure the favorable endorsement of Governor Dole.

"This will be necessary until a delegate to Congress is elected in the Territory.

"The route should not be less than 25 miles in length, and the roads must be in good condition.

"A rough map should be furnished of the country to be traversed, accompanied by a general statement as to the number and avocations of the people to be served.

"The intention of the service is to give a delivery of mail once daily to farming and rural communities, but there must not less than 100 families served by each carrier."

SUFFERED MENTAL ANGUISH.

Nakatani Caused His Monkey to Suffer and was Fined.

Nakatani and his monkey were in court again yesterday. The man was charged with cruelty to animals. He had used the monkey as a moving target at which rubber balls were thrown at five shots for five cents. A basket tied to the monkey's back was the bull's eye. If the thrower got a ball in the basket he got a prize. The monkey got to be very adept at dodging when he saw things coming his way, and the testimony was to the effect that the monkey was seldom, if ever, hit and when he was it did not hurt him. To prove that the poor little animal was in great fear the prosecuting officer made a motion to throw something at it. Quick as a flash it dodged around the corner of the prisoners' dock. Again, when Officer Hanrahan in calling down some amused spectators, threw out his chest the monkey almost had a spasm.

The Judge thought the monkey was caused great mental suffering and anguish of mind by his treatment and fined his owner $20 and costs, advising him to get a small Japanese boy and put him in the monkey's place. Humane officer Miller was the prosecuting witness in the case.

A Fast Trip.

terday. She left the landing at 9:30 a. m., was becalmed over an hour off the end of Molokai and arrived off the harbor at 5:30 p. m., about eight hours from time of starting.
